

Sunday 7th June 2009 – 10am to 3pm

Lake Macdonald Amphitheatre &
Noosa Botanic Gardens, Cooroy

CELEBRATE WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY & THE NOOSA BIOSPHERE

An entertaining

and educational day showcasing some of the region's unique ecological features in a picturesque location.

On the lake

- Free boat tours to the Noosa Hatchery – home of the endangered Mary River Cod
- Australia's largest free Kids' Fishing Clinic with Dave Whelan, Bush'n'Beach journo
- Free boat tours to the Noosa Water Treatment Plant – from the Lake to your tap
- Queensland Canoeing – qualified instructors – learn to paddle and tour the lake

In the amphitheatre

- The Famous Jimmies – top Sunshine Coast musicians play Irish Celtic bluegrass
- Geckoes Wildlife – Want to relate to a reptile? Hear a bird that barks? Martin Fingland presents
- Guest speakers – What's so special about Mary – the Biosphere talks
- Pomona A Capella Choir, Lake Macdonald Pipe Band, Noosa District Concert Band and more

Displays/Activities

- Arting About with Lyn McCrea – Can your kids help save Lake Macdonald from Cabomba Weed?
- MRCCC – Free water testing. Bring your bore, creek or dam water sample
- Geckoes Wildlife – make friends with the natives!
- Free face painting
- Noosa Landcare – free trees for Noosa Biosphere residents. Bring your rate notice

Where: Lake Macdonald Drive, Cooroy Free parking or TravelSmart to win a prize by mountain biking or catching the free bus from Cooroy - connects with Sunbus service 631 departing Noosa Heads at 10.35 am

Free Entry

Refreshments available

Wheelchair accessible.

For more information call 07 5482 4766 or email lakemacgroup@ozwide.net.au

CARING FOR OUR COUNTRY

